Racine Symphony Orchestra Season Finale
Young Musicians invited to play Beethoven's Symphony No. 5 in C minor with the RSO

The Racine Symphony Orchestra announces the final concert for the 2009-10 season on Saturday, April 17 at First Presbyterian Church, Seventh and College Avenue, beginning at 7:30 pm. Maestro Andrew Massey conducts Mozart, Ravel and Beethoven. Mozart's Overture to The Magic Flute begins the evening. Chicago Symphony Orchestra and RSO's harpist, Kelsey Erdahl plays Ravel's Introduction and Allegro joined by an ensemble of flute, clarinet and strings. The finale for the evening will be Beethoven's Symphony No. 5 in C minor. Local high school students selected through an audition process for the inaugural RSO Youth String Invitational will play, seated next to professional members of the orchestra.

Join us for a 'Thank YOU' reception following the concert in Ihrman Hall, celebrating our audiences, musicians, patrons, and Andrew Massey who have all helped to stabilize the RSO this season as we end the year in the black. Displayed next door in the church Chapel is the "Watercolor Rondo" exhibit. The Wustum Watercolor Studio Class, lead by prize-winning local artist, Jean Thielen premieres a new exhibit of original watercolors created by class participants.

Please join us as we celebrate the close of a successful concert season.

Tickets are available by calling the RSO office, 636.9285 or going online at www.racinesymphony.org.
